BUILT FOR CLEAR DECISIONS

READ THE NUMBERS LIKE A PRO.

Big salary graphics get attention. This guide adds the context people need before choosing a training program, apprenticeship, or career move.

01

PAY

Hourly median plus a full-time annualized equivalent. It is not guaranteed take-home pay.

02

GROWTH

BLS projected employment change from 2024 to 2034 - not a promise of local hiring.

03

OPENINGS

Average annual openings include growth, transfers, and workers leaving the occupation.

04

ENTRY

Education and related-experience requirements come from the BLS career tables.

05

REALITY

Risk, schedule, licensing, travel, and work conditions belong beside the pay figure.

SOURCE STANDARD

WAGES FROM OEWS. OUTLOOK FROM BLS PROJECTIONS.

Every published trade page will carry the data year, source link, calculation label, and a plain-language limitation note.

ENTRY SNAPSHOT

POSTSECONDARY NONDEGREE AWARD / NO RELATED EXPERIENCE

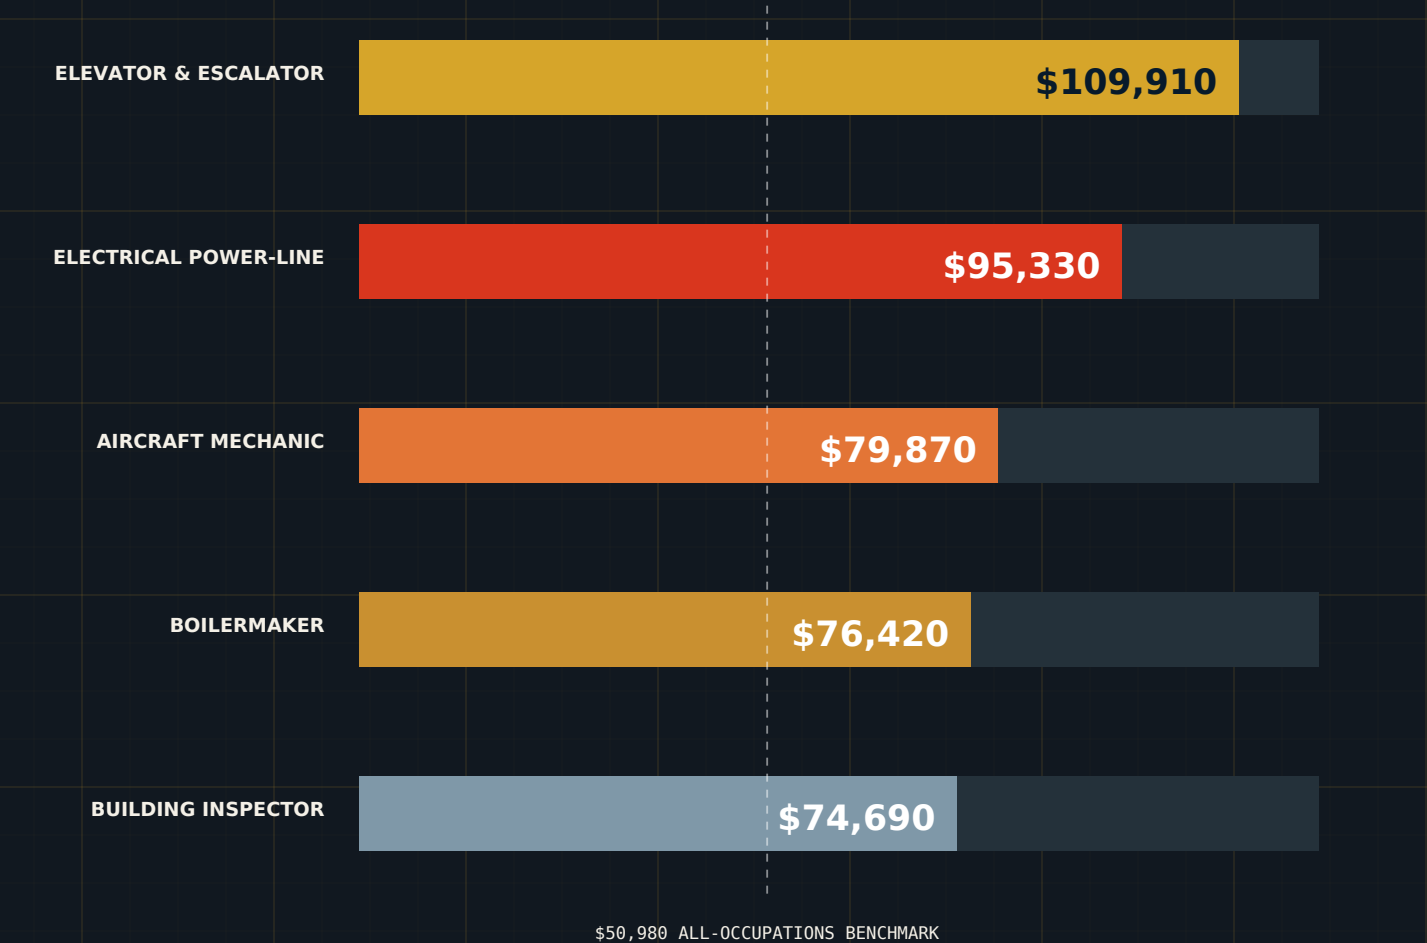

BLS classifies on-the-job training as long-term. The final page will separate legal requirements from optional credentials.

Source: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, May 2025 OEWS national wage table and Employment Projections 2024-2034. Annualized median is a calculated full-time equivalent, not guaranteed annual earnings. Wage-and-salary workers only; self-employed workers and overtime are excluded.

PAY CONTEXT / NOT THE FINAL RANKING

WHAT NATIONAL PAY LOOKS LIKE.

These are verified May 2025 national wage figures from the candidate pool. Pay alone does not determine the final 10.

IMPORTANT

Annualized full-time equivalents are calculated from BLS hourly medians using 2,080 hours. Actual earnings vary by location, employer, union status, licensing, specialty, hours, and experience.
